TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements, to follow the advice of the "thousand" who have already gone, it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."
This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-

WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magifica-cence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-RETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the

CHARLES SUMNER.

Charles Sumner was born in Boston, Mass., Dec. 6, 1811. His father was a lawyer, and he was a member of the Suffolk county bar. He received a collegiate education, and graduated from Harvard College in 1830. He afterwards entered the law school at Cambridge, and in 1834 was admitted to the bar, and soon attained a large practice in the city of Boston. He was appointed reporter of the Circuit Court of the United States, and published three volumes of reports of the decisions of his friend and teacher, Judge Story.

In 1837 Mr. Sumner visited Europe, where he remained three years, residing one year in England. On his return to this country he published, in twenty volumes, an elaborate edition with annotations, of Vesey's Reports. His favorite professional studies were those relating to international and constitutional law.

Though Mr. Sumner had steadily voted with the Whig party, yet up to 1845 he had taken no public stand in politics. On the 4th of July of that year he delivered an oration before the municipal authorities of Boston on "The true grandeur of Nations." In that remarkable effort he insisted that as modern jurisprudence had substituted means of obtaining private justice other than the ordeal of battle, so ought peaceful arbitration settle international differences. Richard Cobden pronounced this speech the noblest contribution made by any modern writer to the cause of peace. This was followed by many other addresses, in which he opposed the extension of slavery, and indeed the institution itself.

When Mr. Webster entered the cabinet of President Fillmore in 1850, Mr. Sumner was nominated for the vacant Senatorship by a coalition of freesoilers and democrats, and was elected after a most violent and protracted contest. His first important speech in the Senate of the United States was upon the fugitive slave law, upon which he argued that Congress had no Constitutional authority to legislate upon the rendition of fugitive slaves; and that if it had, the act was in many important particulars in conflict with the Constitution. It was in this celebrated speech that he laid down that maxim of his political conduct, and to which he steadfastly adhered until he saw it adopted by the country, that "Freedom is national and slavery sectional." In all the debates upon the Missouri compromise and in which the question of slavery arose Mr. Sumner took a prominent part.

His term of office expired in 1857, but he was re-elected unanimously by the Senate of Massachusetts, and in the House out of several hundred members, he received every vote but seven. His next great effort was an elaborate speech in the Senate, denouncing the influence of slavery on society and civilization, which was subsequently printed under the title of the barbarism of slavery. In the debates in Congress resulting from the secession of the Southern States, he opposed all concessions or compromises with slavery, and he was among the first to propose emancipation as the speediest mode of bringing the war to a close. Since the war, he advocated, with untiring zeal, the necessity of enfranchising, and according all civil rights to those whose wrongs he was ever an enemy, and whose welfare was dear to him because he hated oppression.

Mr. Sumner cannot be truly said to have been a politician. His mind was far above intrigues for place and power which too often mark the successful man in American politics. In the twenty-four years of his Senatorial career, the suspicion or charge of corruption was never existed against him. His entrance into public life was during the first uprising of the people of the United States against the institution of human slavery; and this gigantic wrong perpetrated in the name of law and religion, as it then was, roused in him the determination to combat it until he or it was vanquished. He lived to see nearly all of his efforts in behalf of a different race, of a people who had nothing in common with him except their humanity, successful. He lived long enough to know that in many humble homes a thousand miles from his, his name and labor was held in an honor partaking of reverence. His sufferings, for he endured much, in behalf of those, who but a few years ago, were Pariahs in the scale of American civilization, have endeared him a thousandfold to that people of whose rights he was the greatest champion.

What the great Emancipators of England underwent to carry out their grand scheme of progress was little, compared to Mr. Sumner's obstacles. Public opinion in England and in Parliament supported Mr. Wilberforce and his friends, but Mr. Sumner was almost alone in the Congress of the United States. He had to endure the sneers of colleagues and Administrations, the brutal abuse of the public, and the pity of many who conceded to him honesty but denied him practicability. But the great advocate of the inalienable rights of man pursued his way, untrifled by power, and unsubdued by opposition, until American liberty became a living and accomplished fact. Indifference and contumely were the portions which belonged to him in the earlier part of his life, but he saw afterwards those who had passed him by, came to him to fawn and flatter. His equable mind was not elevated by his success more than it had been depressed in the long and arduous warfare he engaged in. Though it is as a philanthropist that Charles Sumner will chiefly be known to posterity, yet his contemporaries will not deny to him the meed of a statesman. His knowledge of international law applied by the dispassionate rectitude of his judgment, went far to maintain friendly relations between foreign nations and our own.

Although in his life and living, as in that of all men, the candid biographer will find something to disapprove, yet the character of but a very few who have figured in the world's history, will stand so close an examination as that of the great American who just died. His faults are not to be unveiled here, but we remark, that they were such as the isolation of his earlier position engendered in him. Faithful and ardent in maintaining his opinions, resolute and unsparing in denouncing wrong, strong in his love of country and of mankind, his fame and his virtues will be remembered as long as oppression is hated or freedom loved.

Governor Kemper's Veto.

It is with sincere pleasure that we notice the action of Governor Kemper, of Virginia, in vetoing the amendments lately made to the charter of Petersburg by the Legislature of that State. It is especially a matter for congratulation when an opponent of the Republican party in the South assigns such reasons for his action as does Governor Kemper. In notable contrast to Gov. Kemper's course is that of the Democratic press of North Carolina, many of which have noticed and approved of this attempted usurpation, before Governor Kemper annulled it by his Executive veto. Such instances of subordination to constitutional authority by the Southern Democracy when in power are as rare as gratifying, and we hail this sign of an intention to abide by fundamental law as one full of promise for Virginia.

WAIFS.

Illinois husbands are on an equality with their wives in relation to property. Instead of courtesy the widower is only to have his dower right of thirds.

The deacons of the churches in Salem, Oregon, have been appointed special policemen. The congregations will be compelled to behave themselves hereafter.

Iowa raised more wheat in 1873 than any other State in the Union. In Indian corn Iowa is second, Illinois leading, and next comes what used to be the great corn growing State of the Union, Ohio.

The silver mines of the Comstock lode in Nevada are now worth, aggregating the market value of stock, sixty millions of dollars. In 1873 they were worth fifty-two millions. During the year they have divided twelve millions.

Chinese immigrants have shown themselves very useful as laborers, washermen, and some of them as doctors. The domains of law and journalism have heretofore been sacred from the almond-eyed. Now a Truckee Chinaman is studying Blackstone and the Nevada code, and intends shortly to hang up his sign as an attorney and court-reporter. He proposes to work cheap, and will probably get a good deal of the business of his countrymen, who are continually, though unwillingly, in conflict with proscriptive laws and ordinances.

1. The Knight's Cross of the Imperial

Order of "Francis Joseph," conferred by his Apostolic Majesty the Emperor of Austria, upon the Honorable Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company as the founder and builder of Sewing Machine Industry.

2. The Grand Diploma of Honor, recommended by the International Jury for this Sewing Machine Company only, for their important contributions to the material and social welfare of mankind.

3. The Grand Medal for Progress, awarded for their New No. 6 Sewing Machine, being for progress made since the Paris Exposition of 1867, at which the only Gold Medal for Sewing Machines was awarded to this Company. Hence the Vienna award marks progress not from a low level or inferior medal, but from a Gold Medal, the highest award made at Paris.

4. The Grand Medal for Merit, for the development of Needle Industry and excellence and superiority of manufactured samples exhibited.

5. A Grand Medal for Merit, for excellence and superiority of Cabinet work, the only award of the kind in this section.

6. Medals for several Co-operators, of the Wheeler & Wilson Company for superior ability.

7. The Official Report, published by the General Direction of the Vienna Exposition, signifying the supremacy of the Wheeler & Wilson Company for quantity and quality of manufacture, and position in the Sewing Machine business, as follows:

OFFICIAL REPORT, VIENNA EXPOSITION,

SEWING MACHINES, &c. (GROUP 18, SEC. 3, N.)

"The greatest Sewing Machine Manufactures in the world is that of Wheeler & Wilson, New York, which alone has brought already over 800,000 of their Sewing Machines into practical use. The complete production of the parts by machinery is so regulated that each complete machine may be used as a sample for exhibition. This firm produces 600 well adjusted machines daily.

"The latest production of this firm, and which is the wonder of the Vienna Exposition, is their new No. 6 Sewing Machine. This universal machine sews the heaviest leather harness and the finest gauzes with a truly pearl stitch.

"Wheeler & Wilson have received the highest prizes at all World's Expositions, and at the Vienna Exposition were extraordinarily distinguished."

FURTHER DISTINGUISHED HON-ORS. New York, Sept. 15, 1873. THE GRAND MEDAL OF HONOR OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE, NEW YORK, Was unanimously recommended by the judges of Sewing-Machines for

WHEELER & WILSON'S

NEW NO. 6 SEWING MACHINE, as being "a decided improvement over all other machines in the market," and which most revolutionize certain branches of industry, especially in Shoe and Harness Manufacturing.

Baltimore, Md Oct. 31, 1873.

The Maryland Institute has awarded Wheeler & Wilson the Gold Medal for their New No. 6 Sewing Machine, Other Sewing Machines received nothing.

Savannah, Nov. 4 1873.

OTTO SCHUTZ,
Observer, U. S. A.

CALANTHE LODGE, No. 7, K. of P., met to-night for work in Page's department.

We saw seventeen men, in fourteen minutes, running about the street after their hats. We paste our pate with money and flour, to coax our chapeau to remain where we put it.

EXCELSIOR ROCK LIME.—A superior article. For sale at twenty-five per cent. less than other lime, by KERCHNER & CALDER BROS., and WORTH & WORTH.

PRICE OF ICE.—Owing to the shortness of the ice crop the price of this luxury has advanced five hundred per cent. over the prices of last year. Ye ice-water drinkers prepare to pay more for nurture this summer.

FIRE.—This morning, the wall of Mr.
Charles Ganzer's bar, near the corner of Market and Front streets, was discovered to be on fire. A defect in the store-pipe is the reason assigned as the probable cause of the fire. Slight damage.

The new postage law brings a considerable revenue from the New York advertising agencies. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.'s quarterly bills upon newspapers received exceed $430; those of S. M.
Pattengill & Co. are above $350, while the agencies of W. J. Carlton, Bates & Locke, W. W. Sharpe and others most prominent, pay from one-fourth to one-eighth of the above amounts.

Owing to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 5 per cent. less than New York cost.

TO BE HANGED.—The opinion of the Supreme Court, in the case of the State against David Martin, from this county, was filed Wednesday, Mr. Justice Bynum delivering it. It affirms the judgment of the Court below. This destroys the hope of a new trial indulged in by the prisoner. At the next term of the Superior Court for this county, David will be again sentenced to execution for his participation in the murder of William Carter.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous! Fun-dle in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
15 Market st.

OBSTRUCTED.—We hear that the wharves or docks are so blocked up with wood, naval stores, etc., as greatly to prevent their prompt use for the Fire Department. The operations of the engines at the fire at Oldham's Mills last night were retarded probably fifteen minutes, as the wharves were so blocked as to render it impossible for them to get to the river. We suggest to the City Marshal to see that the evil is remedied, and to enforce strictly the city ordinance on this subject.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

THE TOWN CRIER.

—Coolish.
—Gold is 111½.
—Quite cool last night.
—Hand in Church notices.
—Very dull about the Court House to-day.
—Don't let the women work out fines on the street.
—The memorial services in honor of Senator Sumner promise to be of rare interest.
—J. & H. Samson, the old standbys, are not behind their neighbors in the dry goods trade.
—Weill, the energetic, has gone North for goods. This establishment has many late styles.
—The Wallace Sisters did not have as large a house last night as we expected, but they made much amusement.
—Their local hits were, many of them, very good indeed.
—The Superior Court Clerk this morning discharged Sam Collier, Ben Lane, John Bowden, J. A. Ashe, and James H. Murphy, held in jail for costs, upon taking the insolvent debtor's oath.
—A party coming from the dredging boat an evening or two ago, mistook the Evening Star for a balloon. Great excitement among the crowd, which soon died away, and the laughter was loud and exhilarating.

The work of paving Chestnut, from Water to Front streets, is nearly completed.

The colored people propose to hold a meeting to-night to consider the proposed municipal appropriation by our city.

The March winds of the past few days have evidently come from regions of snow and ice. Early gardeners are suffering.

"CUT HIM WITH A RAZOR."—This morning, Jailer Nash was informed by a prisoner that Dennis Smith, a brother convict, had threatened to cut him with a razor, and proceeded to put his threat into execution, but was stopped by some of the prisoners. Smith was searched and his weapon taken from him. It is supposed that Smith had the razor in his shoe when he was committed to the tender mercy of the jailer.

CARELESS HORSEMAN.—Yesterday, about 2 o'clock, a gentleman who was crossing Dock, near the corner of Third street, came very nearly being run over by a lad on horseback. The youth was urging his steed along at a very rapid rate, and if the gentleman had not have heard the loud breathing of the horse, he would have undoubtedly been knocked down and run over. The youth pushed on, turning the corner of Fourth, and came very running over a little child, about three years old, who was playing near the edge of the side walk.

The lady beggar, purporting to be a deaf mute, who circulated in this city about a week ago, with considerable success, a card "To the Benevolent," is, in the opinion of the Principal of the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Raleigh, a fraud. He says:

"I am inclined to believe she is not a deaf mute at all, but a speaking woman, who has hit upon this expedient for making money. And if she really is a deaf mute, it is not charitable to encourage her in idleness, when she is abundantly able to earn her own living."

Who was taken in?

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The following is the line of march of the Hibernians, Tuesday, the 17th, instant: Meet at Hall at 8½ o'clock. March from the Hall to Market street; up Market to Second; up Second to Dock; down Dock to St. Thomas' Church; from the Church up Dock to Fourth; up Fourth to Nun; down Nun to Front; up Front to Red Cross; up Red Cross to Fourth; down Fourth to Market; down Market street to the Hall.

J. H. ALLEN,
Chief Marshal.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS.—It is permitted to few men or companies to achieve acknowledged superiority in any important position or business. The present generation has witnessed stupendous rivalry in several branches of industry, and notably the Sewing Machine business. Amid a multitude of competitors steadily and surely the Wheeler & Wilson Company held their way from the beginning, upon fixed and honorable principles. Long since, their leading position in America was established.

Abroad, at London, in 1862, they won the highest premiums; at Paris, in 1867 they distanced eighty-two competitors, and were awarded the highest premium, the only Gold Medal for Sewing Machines exhibited; and lastly, amid unparalleled competition, followed the splendid triumphs at Vienna, noted in our advertising columns.

STATE ITEMS.

Hillsboro' is to have a gymnasium.
A new post office is to be established at Elevation, Johnson county.

Governor Caldwell returned to Raleigh on Wednesday from a visit to Morganton.

A child was born at Company Shops last week, with one ear, four eyes, and a club foot.

Col. George Bushyhead, one of the chiefs of the Cherokee Nation of Indians, lectured in the Court House in Graham on Monday night last.

On last Saturday, in Selma, Johnson county, a colored man named Joe Richardson killed another named Jim Richardson, and fled to unknown parts.

Graham has a curiosity in the shape of a musical tree. One of the Elms on the sidewalk was fractured by the sleet in such a manner that when the wind blows it makes a sound resembling the strains of music.

Simon Dildy, on Sunday morning in Wilson, shot and killed Charles Gay.— Dildy called Gay to the front of his (Gay's) house, and there perpetrated the deed. The murderer fled, but was overhauled and lodged in jail. Dildy was a clerk to Gay, and the difficulty arose in the settlement of some accounts for the week.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The following members of the Board were present: The Mayor, Aldermen Fishplate, Granger, Wilson, Banks, and Hankins.

The Mayor stated the object of the meeting to be the appointment of Registrars and Inspectors for the Special Elections, to be held on Monday, March 23d. The appointees were as follows:

For the First Ward—Elkanah Allen, O. L. Filyaw, James Lowrey.
Second Ward—David E. Bunting, J. F. Post, Thomas Cameron.

Third Ward—James Filyaw, A.
Louis, John Hargrove.
Fourth Ward—William McLaurin, George A. Peck, Alexander Strausz.

Fifth Ward—E. D. Hewlett, Wilkes Morris, Henry Green.

The Mayor was authorized to fill any vacancy occurring among the Registrars and Inspectors.

It was ordered that in case the Cape Fear Agricultural Association or the Wilmington and Sea Side Railroad Company fail to place the requisite amount of expense in the hands of the City Treasurer by Monday, the 16th instant, then the special election appointed for the 23d instant shall not be held.
The Board then adjourned.

A worthy old Dutch woman named Van Rhyn lived near a Court House in Pennsylvania, and the Judge of the district found it convenient to leave his robe there and call for it as he went to court. One day he stepped in for it as usual, and taking down the first black garment that met his eye, he tucked it under his arm, and walked into court, ascended the bench, and began to put it on, when to the great amusement of all present he discovered he had on a woman's garment. Ladies in those days wore separate pockets, and the Judge put his arms through the pocket holes before he discovered his mistake; and with an air of imperturbable gravity he exclaimed: "Before God, I have got on Van Rhyn's petticoat!"

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 13.

The crowds which witnessed the procession yesterday were at some points so dense, and the pressure so great, that several accidents occurred. A stand at Charing Cross broke down, throwing some thirty persons to the ground. The police report the total casualties during the day at 4 killed and 24 injured.

The city of Portsmouth will give public banquets to the troops returning from the Ashantee expedition.

The Standard, in a leading article on Sumner, says that he was a fine speaker and personally honorable, but he was utterly wanting in statesmanship.

Gladstone has issued the customary note, requesting the presence of his supporters on the reopening of Parliament; at the same time he has written to Earl Granville, saying, whilst discharging this duty I feel it necessary that I should explain what a circular could not convey with regard to my individual position. For a variety of personal reasons I could not contemplate any unlimited extension of active political service. I desire my political friends to clearly understand that at my age I must reserve entire freedom to divest myself of the responsibilities of leadership at no distant time. The need of rest will prevent more than my occasional presence in the house during the present session. I should be desirous before the commencement of the 1875 session to consider whether it would be advantageous to keep my services, for the time, at the disposal of the liberal party, or whether I should then claim exemption from the duties hitherto discharged. If, however, there be reasonable grounds to believe that instead of the course which I have sketched it would be professedly, in the view of the party generally, for me at once to assume the position of an independent member I should willingly do so, retaining all my desire for the welfare of the party, and if a leader be chosen, or an interim provision be made for the present year for any successor, he should receive every assistance he might seek or I could render."

Prospectus for 1874-Seventh year
THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe and America, it is daily yielding to more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality over the facility of mere reproduction. The wood cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel engravings, and they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE has reproduced examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art. The quarterly limited plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodard.

The Christmas issue of 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.
Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE by Thos. Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming.

The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's skill and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of the greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy and successful resolution, as attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20th, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES & BROWN, Publishers of THE ALDINE, New York.
Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs of the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical processes of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS. MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs by an American artist, by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities they are made to resemble the work of a foreign artist.

Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders them accessible to all. If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "The Boy with a Bow," a beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the story of his heart.

TERMS.
$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions will be received only on the completion of the subscription, and will be handed to the local canvasser, without reference to the publishers, except in cases where the canvasser is unable to deliver the facsimile signature of JAMES BROWN & CO.

CANVASSERS WANTED.
Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt instructions by applying to JAMES BROWN & CO., Publishers, 58 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORK.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows.

All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of importance, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that would offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office, and especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to disorganize our institutions altogether.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the catenations, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to send up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

WE HAVE NO TRAVELING AGENTS.
THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns, only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily SUN. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address THE SUN, New York City.
